

The City of Anderson has installed 10 wireless access points in the downtown area. If you are within range of one of these antennas you can surf the internet and access e-mail on your Wi-Fi enabled laptop, cell phone, BlackBerry or iPod.

In order to access the city's free Wi-Fi, search for available wireless networks on your device. Look for the network named "coa" and click connect.

